Dear Aunty Ray

Just a few words I was hoping you & all at home are keeping quite O.K. Don't worry about me not writing for so long, because when I got back off leave, all our squadron was shifted, we have travelled nearly all over Wales, anyway we have at last settled right on the south west coast, we are here for seven weeks, then we are going back to our station, after that we were told, all our squadron will eventually be going abroad. We are under canvas here & believe me its different
