

Beaufighter ND181 was piloted by Edward Francis John Robinson, service number 150414, aged 21. Aubrey was the navigator, aged 24.

Operations with 108 Squadron:

Date	Times	Operation
6 Dec 1944	11.45 – 14.10	Recce Pireaus. Many processions with red banners observed. Nea Ionia – all quiet.
7 Dec 1944	14.25 – 15.10	Athens strike. Attacked Hill Loftus Kastella in Pireaus. Blew roof off building with tower causing a very large explosion with fire. Personnel seen to take cover in slit trenches which were then strafed.
10 Dec 1944	15.40 – 16.45	Strafed row of cottages in Athens. No personnel seen, also strafed houses to the N of cottages where rifle fire was aimed at a/c. A small fire was started. Strafed cottages in Athens again. House now burning fiercely where previous sortie had strafed.
12 Dec 1944	09.20 – 11.50	Recce to Larissa. All quiet except for a concentration of 100/150 people in Tithorea.
14 Dec 1944	11.00 – 15.30	Gun recce. No joy.
15 Dec 1944	16.30 – 17.00	Strafed Athens radio station. Strikes were scored on most of the buildings, but no fire was started.
17 Dec 1944	13.20 – 15.25	Recce guns: During recce attacked a lorry loaded with boxes. Lorry blew up and burnt out.
19 Dec 1944	17.30 – 19.40	Cover was given to armoured column coming from Kifisia with survivors from A.H.Q.
21 Dec 1944	09.45 – 10.55	Gun recce. No incidents.
22 Dec 1944	13.05 – 15.25	Gun recce Athens area...no incidents.
24 Dec 1944	11.05 – 13.35	No guns seen but 2 M/T destroyed
26 Dec 1944	14.55 – 17.15	Gun recce. No sightings.
27 Dec 1944	08.25 – 10.05	Tripolis Tac R
1 Jan 1945	09.50 – 13.10	Gun recce: Attacked and damaged 1 M/T. Spotted some guns probably disabled already.
5 Jan 1945	13.35 – 15.25	Four aircraft took off as a display of strength over Patras.
8 Jan 1945	08.25 – 11.00	Tripolis – Patras. Weather was unfit with low clouds and showers. Dropped blankets on landing strip at Patras.
13 Jan 1945	07.35 – 11.40	Tac. R. Patras
28 Jan 1945	09.40	Did not return after intruding Maleme airfield in Crete. Other aircraft tried to contact with no joy. 4 aircraft were sent to search will nil sightings.